MIDTERM EXAM #2 INFO

Date and Time: Wednesday, December 7, 2005, during regular class time. You will have 50 minutes to complete the exam. Please make every effort to be in your seat on time.

What to bring? A blue book and a pen (don't use a pencil, please).

Format: Three identification questions drawn from the list provided below and twenty multiple choice questions. Each identification question will account for 4 points (4 percent of the final grade) and each multiple choice question will account for 1 point, up to a maximum of 18 points (in other words, you have a two point cushion).

What's an 'identification question'? You'll be asked to describe a concept, an event, or a name in 1-2 paragraphs.

Coverage: All readings listed on the course schedule from October 12th (that is, since the first midterm exam) through December 5th plus related lecture materials.

List of ID questions: The three identification questions on the exam will be drawn from the following list:

- The Three Images of International Relations
- The Stag Hunt
- Collective Security
- The Use of Force ‘To Hurt’ (Schelling)
- The Bretton Woods System
- Most Favored Nation
- National Treatment
- The Golden Straightjacket
- Globalization (Friedman)
- The Democratic Peace
- Genocide
- Clash of Civilizations

Examples of Typical Multiple Choice Questions:
Who was John W. Burgess (Oren, “The Subjectivity of the Democratic Peace”)?
- a. A leading American political scientists in the late 19th century
- b. A philosopher who introduced Americans to the writings of Immanuel Kant
- c. Secretary of State in the cabinet of Woodrow Wilson, who resigned in 1917 because of his opposition to Wilson's decision to enter the war
- d. None of the above

‘Liberal democratic regimes are less warlike than authoritarian regimes.’ What ‘image’ of international relations does this statement reflect?
- a. Man (Individual)
- b. State
- c. System
- d. Realist