I. Multiple Choice Questions (5 pts. each)

01. 6th century philosopher who drafted the first map of the world
   (a) Hippocrates
   (b) Anaximander
   (c) Epicurus

02. The term chora refers to a city state’s
   (a) urban center
   (b) extra-urban territory
   (c) citizen assembly

03. Rise of the polis or city-state
   (a) 9th or 8th century BCE
   (b) 5th or 4th century BCE
   (c) 3rd or 2nd century BCE

04. Alexander of Macedon extended the Greek world
   (a) to the west, as far as Spain
   (b) to the north, as far as Hungary
   (c) to the east, as far as the Hindus valley

05. Author of On Airs, Waters, and Places
   (a) Hippocrates
   (b) Anaximander
   (c) Epicurus

06. Subsistence mode of Early Stone Age communities
   (a) hunting and gathering
   (b) agropastoralism
   (c) neither A or B

07. The Nile flooded its valley
   (a) every month
   (b) every year
   (c) at random times
08. The earliest settled communities appear in the
   (a) Early Stone Age (Palaeolithic)
   (b) Recent Stone Age (Neolithic)
   (c) Iron Age

09. 6,000 BCE:
   (a) Bronze Age
   (b) Neolithic
   (c) neither A or B

10. Greece is bound by sea
   (a) W and E
   (b) N, W, and E
   (c) S, W, and E

II. True / False Questions (5 pts. each)
11. Siltation of river mouths affects the appearance of coastlines
12. Epicurus was an atomist philosopher
13. The Nile sources are in central Africa
14. The earliest stone tool technology dates to the Neolithic
15. Epicurus promoted the principle of Considered Moderation
16. The beginnings of Egyptian civilization are dated to the Neolithic, 3100 BCE
17. Greeks had a one-sided view of nature as nurturing and benign
18. The ancient Egyptians called their land Kemet, ‘The Dark Earth’
19. The ancient Egyptian calendar had twelve months
20. Stoics supported a strategy of emotional response to life and natural events