Greetings to all potential members of UF in Rome 2014! Congratulations to those of you who have submitted applications, you’ve made an excellent decision!

This just in: our program price for 2014 will be $5,404. It is a big investment, but one that you will never regret. Information on financing study abroad (including scholarships) can be found on the UFIC website. There are ways to make this happen!

Below you will find a summary of the highlights of week two of the program. (A summary of the highlights of week one is attached to this message.)

Monday: In the morning you may want to hit an open-air market to get some fresh fruit and cheese. If you’ve already visited the market at Piazza di San Cosimato, you could venture over to the famous Campo de’ Fiori. In the afternoon, attend classes, and then head to the Coliseum for a tour guided by our own Dr. Rea!

Tuesday: Spend the morning exploring, attend afternoon classes, and then head out for an afternoon tour of the Palatine Hill and Roman Forum. What could be better?!
Wednesday: Attend classes as usual, and then head home to pack your bags for Florence!

Thursday: Italian class will meet in the morning. Afterwards, everyone will head to the train station to catch our high-speed train to Florence. We will arrive in the late afternoon and check in to our gem of a hotel, the Hotel Torre Guelfa. The location of our lodgings (two blocks from the Uffizi) and the views from the rooftop bar / terrace can't be beat! After getting settled, we will meet for an orientation tour of the city, and then head out for a fabulous home-style meal at Trattoria la Casalinga. Yum!

Friday – Sunday: Explore Florence! We will take you to the Uffizi Gallery, the Accademia (home to Michelangelo's famous sculpture of David), and to the churches of Santa Maria Novella and Santa Croce. We will also sneak in a gelato at the famous Vivoli (gelateria). You will have plenty of free time to explore the city on your own, climb Giotto's bell tower, visit the Boboli Gardens, shop, and sample typical Tuscan cuisine.

- Facebook group: “UF in Rome 2014”
- Program directors: Sherrie Nunn, sherrie@ufl.edu and Gianfranco Balestriere, gbalex@ufl.edu